Why Utah Companies (and Professionals) Should Take the CGBP Class: Tackle Today's Global Trade Challenges

- Struggling with global supply chain disruptions?

Learn how to build diversified and resilient sourcing strategies tailored for Utah-based exporters and importers.

- Unclear on compliance with ever-changing international trade regulations?

Get expert insights into export controls, tariffs, and trade agreements that impact Utah's trade with major partners like Mexico, Canada, and Asia.

- Struggling to break into new international markets?

Master market entry strategies and tools to help Utah companies identify and penetrate high-growth regions.

- Losing money on international payments or currency exchanges?

Understand trade finance, foreign exchange risk, and secure transaction methods to protect your bottom line.

- Overwhelmed by documentation and customs procedures?

Learn the A-to-Z of global shipping, Incoterms, and required paperwork to avoid costly delays at ports.

- Facing cultural or communication barriers with overseas partners?

Strengthen cross-cultural negotiation skills—critical for Utah's diverse export destinations.

- Struggling to find jobs in the international field?

Stand out to employers with the CGBP credential, showing you're equipped with practical global trade knowledge and skills.

- Looking to win government contracts or international bids?

The CGBP signals that your business understands global standards and is ready to scale.

- Want to increase your competitiveness and credibility?

The CGBP certification, backed by the U.S. Department of Commerce and NASBITE, is a nationally recognized mark of excellence in international business.

Point of Leadership Speaker Series

Sponsored by Hillcrest Bank

Real Leadership, Real Impact, A behind the scenes tour of

Real Salt Lake Soccer Organization

Wednesday June 04, 2025 @ 11:30AM

Real Soccer Stadium 9256 South State Street Sandy, Utah

Join us for our next Point of Leadership Speaker Series as we step inside the world of Real Salt Lake, one of Utah's most recognized and respected professional sports organizations. This unique, behind-the-scenes experience offers a firsthand look at how RSL builds culture, fosters leadership, and creates high-performance teams—on and off the field.

You'll hear directly from key leaders within the organization as they share insights on:

Creating a winning culture that inspires both athletes and staff

Building trust and alignment across diverse teams

Leading through change in a competitive, high-stakes environment

Translating sports leadership principles into everyday business success

Whether you're leading a company, managing a team, or building your career, this experience will offer powerful takeaways on leadership, strategy, and collaboration—all through the lens of professional sports.

The Ruth at DoTerra

401 S Pleasant Grove Blvd

Pleasant Grove, UT 84062

Show starts at 4:00PM

Point of the Mountain Chamber Member Day at The Ruth at DoTerra

Date: Saturday, August 23, 2025 @4:00PM

The Ruth at DoTerra

401 S Pleasant Grove Blvd, Pleasant Grove, UT 84062

Join us for a special Member Day at the brand-new Hale Center Theater, The Ruth at DoTerra!

We're treating our Chamber members to a hilarious night out with the hit Broadway comedy "Something Rotten!"

Brace for laughs as Shakespeare, Broadway showtunes, and breakfast collide in this uproarious farce. Hilarity ensue when down-on-their-luck brothers Nick and Nigel Bottom challenge the Bard himself by writing the world's first musical. Winner of Best Musical and hailed by Time Out New York as "the funniest musical comedy in at least 400 years."

This is a fun and relaxed way to connect with fellow members, enjoy top-notch local theater, and experience the beautiful new venue in Pleasant Grove.

Tickets are limited, so be sure to reserve yours early!

Let's share some laughs and make it an afternoon to remember!
